

PPE Donation

No man is an island and during the time when our healthcare frontliners had very limited Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), BenLife took the initiative to procure them for distribution to hospitals, organizations and people who need them the most.

